18. The method of claim 17, further comprising associating an effectiveness of patient therapies that includes using the model results to guide a treatment or intervention.

19. The method of claim 10, further comprising extracting measures of cardiac output including ejection fraction by mining and linking ECG data to associated patient measures of ejection fraction based on other cardiac imaging modalities.

* * * * *